ROBYN'S MASS TO HAVE FIRST RENDITION TO-MORROW

Choir of 80 Voices Will Sing Communion at College Church, With Author at the Organ.

The mass composed by Alfred G. Robyn will be given in its present relation at St. Francis Xavier College, Clinton Hill, Saturday morning, at 10:30 o'clock, with the composer himself presiding at the organ and Prof. D. L. Delane, organist at the church, directing the choir.

The large choir of the college church will be augmented for the occasion by the members of Holy Communion Episcopal Church. Choral and organ music will number some eighty voices.

Miss Eugenia Gerber, Miss Marion, and Arthur Crutcher will be the soloists.

The Mass, the "Mass of the Sacred Heart" and is written in memory of the late William Robyn, father of the composer.

Alfred G. Robyn has gained an enviable reputation as a comic-opera composer, this is practically Mr. Robyn's first attempt at the serious.

The organists of St. Louis, who have heard the mass, say it is a masterful composition with a wealth of melody. In fact, they clearly show a knowledge of the art of composition.

In discussing his latest musical production, Mr. Robyn said: "This mass is my most ambitious effort. It came to me on the spur of the moment, and I planned it will number some eighty voices.
